BIRTHS

Daughter.

Landlord Daughtery of the New Central is sure in a big humor today.
He received a telegram from his son, Samuel, at Covington, stating that the stork had brought a bouncing baby girl to his home Sunday, that parents and daughter were getting along all right, and that they had named her Elizabeth Pevere.

King.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Joe King of Covington, a daughter, Mrs. King will be remembered as a niece of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Boise, formerly of this city.

TAKES NEW POSITION.

Deputy State Fire Marshal Edward Hite of this city, has resigned his position with the Commonwealth to accept a position with the American La France Fire Apparatus Company of Cincinnati. Mr. Hite was formerly chief of the Maysville Fire Department and is a recognized authority on fire fighting apparatus and the American La France Company have made no mistake when they obtained his services. His many Maysville friends wish him success in his new field.

BRANCH OPENED.

The new branch of the Central Garage Company at Flemingsburg was opened for business Monday with Mr.
Robert Hammond in charge. Mr. O.
L. Barlett was present.

John J. West, aged 98, the oldest Confederate veteran in Kentucky, died at the Confederate Home at Peewee Valley Saturday.

Miss Elizabeth Hiatt and sister, Mrs. Margaret Royce, are quite ill with grip at their home on East Third street.

1915---OUR BANNER YEAR---1915

We wish to thank our many friends and customers for their liberal patronage for this our fourth year in business, which has proven to be considerable beyond our anticipation, for which we are very thankful.

We are now looking forward to a greatly increased business the coming year and we have installed the latest and most improved equipment for handling your orders, which guarantees high grade mill work and satisfaction to all, at the best possible prices.

We are leaders in our line.

Same Sunday last year. 962

This is the week of prayer and the first service was held Monday morning in the First Christian church. Watch the papers for the program.

Those who have been watching the rank of the schools will notice that the Forest Avenue M. E. and the Central Presbyterian schools have exchanged places.

The ministers of the downtown churches drew lots Sunday night as to what pulpits they should fill. The exchange thus made was enjoyed by congregations and pastors alike.

It is good to notice the fine weather and the increased attendance in the schools. May the schools continue to grow. The county president and secretary will be with the Orangeburg Sunday schools next Sunday.

The Second M. E. church, South, began their revival service Sunday night. Rev. Mr. Spell, pastor of the Mt. Olivet M. E. church, South, preached an able sermon from Romans 5:5 Services this afternoon and every afternoon at 2 o'clock and at night at 7.
These services are spiritual and up-lifting, and the public is cordially invited to come to each and all these services.

CHRISTMAS TREE SHORN OF DEC-ORATIONS.

Early Monday morning Foreman Charles Sweet of the Maysville Public Service Company, had a force of workmen engaged in removing the electrical decorations from the municipal Christmas Tree on Market street.

FOUL ODORS

Arise From the Pool Back of Postoffice On East Second and Government Streets.

Now that the new city council meets tonight, would it not be well for them to consider some method of lifting up that hole containing water and filth just back of the postoffice on East Second street?

Several weeks ago the trees that were lining the banks of this unsightly hole were removed or trimmed to the water's edge and this exposed the slimy water to public gaze, and at the same time allowed the foul odors to circulate more freely until now, every passerby gets his nostrils full of the obnoxious atmosphere.

Get busy, gentlemen of the new council of whom we expect so much, and start the good work by ridding Maysville of this long continued nuisance. Let it be done away with at once.

Never mind if it helps some piece of individual property. Good health to all the people of Maysville is worth more than helping some city property owner.

Make a good start in the New Year, gentlemen.

CAUGHT AT LAST

Fred Hayes Finally Apprehended By Local Authorities Saturday Night.

Fred Hayes, who has been wanted by the Maysville police department for several months on a number of charges, among them that of issuing cold checks, was arrested Saturday night in a local theater by Officer Dudley Bloomhoff.

Fred has been in the clutches of the law a number of times, but his escape, at one time leaving his coat with the sleuths as a memento. Upon another time he made an escape from the Oklahoma schoolhouse while it was surrounded. He has boasted, it is alleged, that he could not be arrested, but Saturday night he was trailed to the theater and after being permitted to enjoy the performance he was arrested upon his exit from the place.
He was conducted to jail with handcuffs on him just for the sake of "safety first."

WALLINGFORD-FARRAR.

Miss Bessie Wallingford of Orangeburg, and Mr. Goldsby Farrar of Huntington, W. Va., surprised their many friends by being quietly married at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. J. E.
Roden on West Fourth street. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H.
E. Wilhoite at 3:30 Sunday afternoon.

Miss Bessie Wallingford is the daughter of Mrs. George W. Wallingford of Orangeburg, and has quite a number of friends in this city who will congratulate Mr. Farrar upon winning one of Maysville's most winsome ladies.

Mr. Farrar is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Farrar of Huntington, W.
Va., and is popular with all who knew him. He is connected with the Rardin & Kyger Automobile Sales Company of Huntington.

MRS. CHARLES FIELDS GRIFFIN.

The many friends of Mrs. E. C.
Phister and Miss Amy Phister sym-patize with them in the great loss and sorrow which has come to them by the death of Mrs. Charles F. Griffin of Mammoth, N. Y. Mrs. Griffin had been critically ill for a month past, but during the last week her condition was more favorable. So the telegram which was received Sunday night came as a severe shock and an overwhelming grief.

Mrs. Griffin, known here as Miss Annie Phister, eldest daughter of the late Judge E. C. Phister, was a rare woman, endowed with a high intellectuality and deep spirituality and greatly beloved in the community in which she lived for her noble traits and great philanthropy. Funeral services at Mammoth, N. Y., on Tuesday afternoon.

RISE IN RIVER STILL TO COME.

The river gave the residents in the low districts another big scare when it passed the forty-five-foot mark here Saturday, with rain falling and the weather warm. It reached forty-six feet Sunday, and stood at that mark for several hours, when it began falling. There is another rise on at headwaters, but it will not have much effect on the river at this point, as the cold weather has stopped what promised to be another overflow.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Wood and little daughter, of Portsmouth, O., were the week-end guests of Mr. Wood's brother, Mr. H. O. Wood, of Houston avenue.

Sunday night C. & O. train No. 4 put off at least twenty-five people for Maysville. Many of these had gone to Cincinnati to spend the New Year.

NUMBER 34,916

Wins Handsome Auto Given Away
By Mike Brown—Large Crowd Attends the Drawing.

Saturday afternoon at the store of Col. Mike Brown, the "square deal man," the long anticipated drawing of the first of the two autos to be given away by this progressive merchant was held. The machine, which is a two-seated Monroe roadster, was exhibited in front of the establishment, and for several hours was the center of attraction for the large crowd that had gathered about the large window in which the drawing was to take place.

Promptly at 2 o'clock, before the judges, Messrs. Thomas A. Keith, E. T.
Kirk and J. B. Durrett, the drawing took place. Master Thomas Brown, the 7-year-old son of Mr. Brown, reached into a large sack of ticket stubs and drew therefrom ticket No.
34,916, which after due inspection by the judges, was pronounced the ticket which entitled the holder to the handsome car.

As yet no one has claimed the machine, but Col. Brown expects the duplicate of the lucky stub to turn up in a few days and the car will be delivered to the lucky holder.

REAPPOINTED NIGHT SERGEANT.

Night Sergeant Harry L. Walsh was Saturday reappointed for the ensuing year to the position which he has held during the last year, and will have charge of the police department after night. His reappointment was expected by all.

HERE'S THE NUMBER.

K. OF P. LYCEUM COURSE.

The Ida V. Kinley Entertainers will be the first attraction on the K. of P.
Lyceum Course Monday, January 3, 1916, at the Knights of Pythias Hall.
Miss Kinley is a finished artist. Her renditions win great favor with the audience. Her Japanese work is especially pleasing, and her sleigh bells are great. Miss Kinley possesses a voice of rare quality, which is under perfect control. Miss MacLean is a reader of charm and cleverness without affectation or mannerisms. She holds her audience by the power of her art. Hear these talented people tonight.

Tickets for the entire course of six numbers $1.50. Single admission for this number is 25 cents.

COUNCIL MEETS TONIGHT.
